

Roger Hartley, Vice Chair of the Governance Board

Member, Trustee, Parent Governor

Governance Committees

Chair of the Standards Committee of North Halifax Grammar School Governance Board

Other Committees

Data Working Group – linked to the Standards Committee of North Halifax Grammar School Governance Board

Mr Hartley has spent 50 years in education as a teacher, inspector, and consultant. He began his teaching career in a South Craven primary school before moving to Haworth Primary School as Deputy Headteacher followed by 10 years as Headteacher in two Bradford schools. In 1984 he gained a Master's degree in educational studies at York University researching decision-making processes of Headteachers.

From 1985 till his retirement in 2006, Mr Hartley was one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools (HMI). He has written and co-authored various Ofsted publications on Early Years, and school improvement.

On retirement he set up an education consultancy. Since 2013 he has been a parent governor at North Halifax Grammar School.

Mr Hartley's interests include music (he plays the organ and piano); all things culinary; dog walking; and photography.

Mr Hartley has a son at the school.